The texts of the old and rare books are newly-published in an electronic version (ebooks) including digitally-enhanced facsimile pages showing the original text, design and layout. Content-related bookmarks have been implemented manually and vary from one ebook to another, which also means the users can see on their computer screen a new kind of navigation never previously available. Users subsequently have the ability to link directly to specific chapters / pages in the text. Further to this there are multiple full text search functions in each ebook's 'old' layout and text within a collection; for scholarly research users have new and unprecedented accessibility to the content.

The texts - compiled into literature genres - have been selected by scholars. This worldwide unique collection (together with the Women's collection) covers more than 90% of the English Language Literature produced in the 'Romantic Period'. It contains even more First Edition Novels than are in the British Library. This collection is available for purchase with different electronic access options.

These 1,561 titles / 3,040 ebooks in their technical innovativeness support studies well beyond Literature such as History, Area Studies, Cultural Studies and Gender Studies.
